Technical product consultant with 5+ years in fintech and compliance technology, across the full delivery lifecycle from API architecture to client integrations. Focused on translating complex risk and compliance requirements into seamless, well-documented solutions that bridge clients, product and engineering.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Moody's

Assistant Director Product Consultant, Customer Engagement — Singapore – Apr 2026 to Present

- Acted as senior technical owner for an assigned product domain, serving as the bridge between product, engineering, clients and sales to resolve complex technical issues and turn client needs into product priorities

Product Manager, Entity Verification API — Vienna, Austria – Jun 2023 to Mar 2026

- Built developer-first API infrastructure that enables businesses to embed comprehensive third-party risk management into their platforms with a single integration, abstracting away the complexity of underlying data providers and regulatory requirements
- Drove end-to-end product strategy for entity verification APIs, designing the architecture that transformed fragmented compliance workflows into programmatic, real-time risk decisions embedded directly in customer applications
- Partnered with UX team to design developer portal and quickstart guides that reduced integration time from weeks to days

Bitpanda

Associate Product Manager, Operational Excellence — Vienna, Austria – Feb 2022 to Dec 2022

- Led the product evolution of an operations platform used daily by 200+ users across trading, risk, payments, support and compliance teams, redesigning fragmented workflows into a unified interface that reduced manual task completion time by 40%
- Shipped 80+ features that standardized user journeys across customer onboarding, transaction monitoring and risk decisioning, enabling the internal team to scale seamlessly from 50 to 200+ users

Shared Technologies

Business Process Analyst & Master's Thesis Student — Bologna, Italy – Jan 2021 to Jul 2021
